Dear Sir

Letter recd and will say - why I wrote you about coins - party thinks he can get more out of me than a dealer such as you are. He told me he knows you and all the big dealers down east but he dont care to tell to any of them why I dont know his name & cant give because he told me not to tell. If I see I cant do anything and that he is anxious to sell which he is not at present & will give you his name. He also writes he has a 1794 and 1804 dollar and 1836 brilliant proof dollar with out stars. He asks me to give him \$10.00 for the following 1 Carolina 1 Ga. gold dol. 2 2½ same 2-500 same and two Ticker peak 2½ 1860 and 1861 I cant make him to understand to give me a description so I will know what to do. Regarding offer of \$3.00 gold or \$3.65 to high bought 55 in 98 oz. 10 days ago at \$3.40 and he says he will have 100 mor for me before the new year. I will offer \$3.45 for 50 of your cash with order. On my trip east I bought what I thought would be enough for me at  $3\frac{3}{4}$ . and I know you can buy them cheaper than  $3\frac{1}{2}$  at  $3\frac{1}{4}$  & I will take 50 or 100. I also have order for 400 gold have you one. any shape or scrip. and some cheap 5.00 and 10.00. This party also has a nice 1793-94-95-96-97-98-99-~~00~~ 1801-01-02-03 1804-5-6-7-8-9-10 and 11-12-13 and 1814 cents.

They are to fine for us there he will send me or approval but way he writes they will be too high for us. He sent me a catalog of most his 1804 cents find it enclosed please return it and the list sent you and if possible get my order off before next Tuesday party is going away

Buckwheat Cakes

Made According to the Following Directions are
THE BEST!

Dissolve one cake of FLEISCHMANN & Co.'s COMPRESSED YEAST in one pint of lukewarm milk or water. Rub together one tablespoonful of wheat flour, one tablespoonful of molasses or sugar, and half a teaspoonful of salt. Add to this the milk or water containing the dissolved Yeast, and rub until perfectly smooth, and then stir in one pint of lukewarm milk or water. To this add sufficient Buckwheat Flour (about one quart) to make thin batter, which should be rubbed perfectly smooth. Set the batter in a moderately warm place to rise over night. In the morning, thin if necessary, and fry on well-greased griddle.

QUICK PROCESS.—Dissolve one cake of FLEISCHMANN'S COMPRESSED YEAST in one and one-half pints of lukewarm milk or water, and add one teaspoonful of salt, a handful of wheat flour, a tablespoonful of molasses, and Buckwheat Flour enough to make ordinary batter. Set in a warm place to rise. Will be ready for baking in about thirty minutes.

Every cake of FLEISCHMANN & CO.'S COMPRESSED YEAST bears a Yellow Label with the firm's facsimile signature thereon, thus
